LOUISBURG

FEMALE COLLEGE.

REV. T. M. JONES, A. M., Pres't and Proprietor.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January, 1866.

Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health, intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County, nine miles from Franklinton, on the R. and Gaston Railroad. Between these points there is a daily stage line, connecting with trains going North and South.

The College building, located in a beautiful grove, on an elevated site, is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated, and fitted up with neat furniture and fire places in the dormitories. It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade, affording superior facilities for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.

With the advantages of a good library, a well selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty, and large experience in connection with the Greensboro Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to merit a liberal share of patronage. Boarding pupils will live as members of the President's family. Terms reasonable, and will be made known in due time. Those desiring to send their daughters, will please address me, for the present, at Greensboro,' N. C, and circulars will be sent.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1865.

THE NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Jonathan Worth, Esq.

OF RANDOLPH.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.—Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY.

We acknowledge His Excellency, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, to be the head and leader of the great National Union party. His reconstruction policy is at present the basis of that party, and we stand firmly upon it. This is the only party we acknowledge in this State.

The Discussion at Smithfield.

We have received an account of the discussion at Smithfield, for which we are much obliged to a friend. It is too long for insertion and we are compelled to defer until to-morrow our extracts from it. The Standard tries to impress upon its readers of course, that Col. Russ is more than a match for Mr. Turner. Every one who knows the men knows better. Few, men can cope with Mr. Turner, on a fair field. Our information puts the boot on the other leg, and we are assured that the effect of the discussion, is favorable to Mr. Turner and Mr. Worth.

We regret to learn that Col. Russ assumed to have been always a Union man, and an enemy to the Confederate cause. His position is well known in this County. He was one of our old Union friends who got whipped about two years or eighteen months before Gov Vance, and some of the rest of us did. Since that he has been for the Federal cause.

We are informed, that Col. Russ said at Smithfield that he had always rejoiced at the victories of the Federal army and deprecated a Confederate victory. Upon this Mr. Turner turned upon him with the force of an avalanche. He gave Col. Russ' record, and then told the people, "Yes, he rejoiced at the triumphs of the Federal army and the defeat of your brave boys. When they were weltering in their gore at Bentonsville and other places, Col. Russ was shouting over it and rejoicing at the slaughter of our Southern braves." We hope that the Colonel did not go it quite so strongly.

If any man votes for Mr. Worth under the impression that he is voting his friend a pardon, he will be very much mistaken. The best way to get a general amnesty for North Carolina is to elect Gov. Holden by an overwhelming majority. Standard.

This is very plainly telling the people that unless they vote for Gov. Holden they will not get their pardon. We are sure that Gov. Holden does not place himself in the ridiculous attitude of being a trafficer in pardons, but the Standard his paper, does so place him. The Standard would no doubt have it so, that all unpardoned persons in North Carolina must vote for Gov. Holden on pain of not getting pardoned. Ridiculous! A Governor playing the part of a Tetzel, a hawker about of Executive clemency. We deny that Gov. Holden desires to be put in such a position. How would the thing chime? Ho! all ye unpardoned rebels, listen! listen! a pardon for a vote—a pardon for a vote!

Moreover the Standard says that the best way to get a general amnesty for North Carolina is to elect Gov. Holden by a large vote. Why Gov. Holden has never said he was in favor of a general amnesty. Jonathan Worth declares himself out and out, in favor of a general amnesty.

The County Meeting.

We have not had time to notice the County meeting held in the city last Saturday. It was a failure we learn, but few persons turning out.—We learn that Mr. Rayner made a Union speech—was always Union—never anything else. We have heard recently that Mr. Rayner was one of the founders of the Confederate newspaper in this city and a Director of the Company for some time. Wonder if it is true?

Col. Edwards, of Granville, was present, and made one of his pretty speeches to about twenty people and the benches. But right on the back of it, Capt. DeCarteret nominated Col. Russ for Congress. It was a wet blanket we hear.

No nominations were made for the County—What are the Worth men doing? It is high time a full ticket was out on both sides. The Holden men no doubt have theirs cut and dried. Let the Worth men bestir themselves.

Pardons! Pardons!

A day or two ago we announced the receipt at the Executive office of 240 pardons. We publish to-day another long list. We are delighted at this. We advise the Standard to insist that the Governor shall have at least 3000 of our people pardoned in the next two weeks. He will certainly need their votes about that time. If a pardon for Gov. Graham, Weldon N. Edwards, W. T. Dortch, Jos. Turner and many others were sent on pretty soon, would help much. By the way, we see that those noble men W. N. H. Smith and Jno. A. Gilmer have been pardoned. Every member of Congress has been pardoned except Josiah Turner and Mr. Gaither, and those chief of sinners, W. A. Graham and W. T. Dortch. Well, it is not too late yet, for

"While the lamp holds out to burn
The vilest sinner may return."

The Standard persists in the declaration that Gov. Holden never was a secessionist. Does it hope to deceive any one, by such palpable misrepresentation? Every school boy in the State, has had the evidence before him, and yet the Standard persists.

Alex. Little, Esq., of Anson, is a candidate for Congress in the third Congressional District. He is an out and out Worth man.

For the Sentinel.

THE STATE LIBRARY.

On the 16th inst., I visited the Public Library in company with two friends, members of the Convention then in session, and was courteously informed by the Librarian that he was instructed by His Excellency the Governor, to exclude me from that Hall. Learning that this sentence was exciting considerable indignation among the members of the Convention and others, on the following day, that His Excellency might disabuse their minds of any false impression as to the reasons he deemed satisfactory for my expulsion, I addressed to him the letter a copy of which is as follows, and which will speak for itself.

To His Excellency, W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina:

On the early days of your official life, I had the honor to call on your Excellency, and express my ardent wishes for the success of your administration, as well as my kind personal regards for yourself. You then addressed me as "your old friend"—language very grateful to me, as it accorded so truly with the history of more than twenty years, of our personal intercourse. During all that time, though I wrote much for the press, and sometimes with sufficient bitterness, and although we were sometimes acting together and sometimes apart, I never allowed myself to write one sentence reflecting on either your personal or political honor; and if, during those years, a harsh word against you ever escaped my lips, it has now escaped my memory. I do, however, remember that on many occasions, I vindicated your public life from unworthy motives, attributed to you by the party friends with whom I was then acting, in opposition to yourself and yours.

Having much leisure of late years, and having some of the "De Senectute" spirit of the ancient worthies, I have made the Public Library a place of retreat. I found there an occupation congenial to my quiet tastes and habits, sometimes culling the wisdom of the politicians, sometimes the beauties of the poets, and sometimes, though rarely, poring over the heavier works of science and history. The Library had become, as it were, my home. The good natured and kind hearted librarian was almost my brother.

On yesterday morning I was told, on entering the hall, that your Excellency had been pleased to order the librarian to exclude me from the chamber.

If the librarian correctly understood your Excellency's order, may I presume respectfully to enquire for what reason this sentence of exclusion has passed against a citizen so humble and harmless as myself? And will your Excellency be pleased further to state for my guidance, the mode in which I may proceed to purge myself, and obtain a pardon for a supposed offence against the State, or against your Excellency as its chief Executive? The offence cannot be very aggravated in its guilt, as I solemnly assure your Excellency that I am totally ignorant of having sinned against either, in a manner to deserve this "unusual punishment."

May I presume further to ask for information as to the termination of this sentence of exclusion against me; and on what day, if ever, I may be permitted to resume my seat without impropriety among those cherished familiar friends, in whose silent but cheerful society I have heretofore found a pleasure amounting almost to a luxury?

I have the honor to be your Excellency's most obedient and humble servant,
H. W. HUSTED.

As the Governor has not been pleased to reply to to my inquiries, I can only conjecture the causes which have influenced his action in the premises. I am conscious of no act of mine which can be construed into an opposition to the administration either of the State or Federal governments. On the contrary I have on all occasions, both by tongue and pen, given my hearty support to both; and uniformly urged all, over whom I had any influence, to do likewise. I deemed it the duty of all good citizens, to support the plan of his Excellency after it was adopted, for restoring our State to the Union. In that regard I have certainly performed my whole duty to the best of my poor ability. The scheme of President Johnson has also had my most hearty approbation and support. Why then I am considered unworthy of entrance to one of our Public Halls, and treated as a public enemy, or a dangerous felon, I cannot imagine. I hereby solemnly disavow all intention to mutilate or otherwise abuse the public property. I certainly did not intend to steal. Besides I was in good, honest company, and could have been easily watched, if I had been feloniously disposed.

The only explanation which I am able to give for this very painful sentence, was suggested by a sympathising friend to whom I poured out my sorrows. It was this. A few days before my expulsion from the Library, at the request of a gentleman who was otherwise busily engaged, I having nothing else to do, and being very good natured, submitted to the labor of copying for him a few extracts from the bound file of the Standard for 1861—a book belonging to the Public Library, and owned by the State. I made the extracts and handed them to the aforesaid gentleman without note or comment. To what use he put them is no concern of mine. Of this action of the Governor I make no complaint. I submit without a murmur to the will of the powers that be. But I protest that I meant neither rebellion nor treason. I may have offended, but "my offence hath this extent—no more." Those who oppose the election of Jonathan Worth as Governor are every day searching the public Records, and making extracts to be used against him in the approaching contest. I had expressed no desire for a change in our State Executive, when I was expelled from the Library.

Should this "plain unvarnished tale" meet the eye of our soft-hearted and impartial Governor, who has no malice to gratify and no enemies to punish, I hope his tender heart may relent, and that he may be pleased to revoke his sentence, and allow "his old friend" once more to ensconce himself in his old arm chair in the Library, to luxuriate in the wisdom of the ancients in whose society he has had so great delectation in days of yore. He will promise never to touch the Standard columns again; and if necessary, he will further engage never more to read that paper, however painful may be the sacrifice, and although he has perused it, and paid for it, through good report, and through evil report, for the space of seventeen years.

H. W. HUSTED.

Raleigh, Oct. 24rd., 1865.

For the Sentinel.

Facts for the People.

Let it be known that John L. Pennington is the right hand man of Gov. Holden. That the latter gives to the former aid, countenance and support. The Raleigh Progress urges that every one who was active in the late war shall be put with Gov. Graham and the free negroes, and not allowed to vote for ten or fifteen years.

Be it known that W. W. Holden in 1850 declared for secession as a constitutional right, and that he has built up more secession in North Carolina than all other men put together; and after doing the mischief backed out and deserted his friends.

Be it known that W. W. Holden now avows himself an Andrew Jackson Henry Clay man, which avowal is the latest phase of Holdenism in North Carolina. A States right Federalist (?) or a white-black bird is now understood. Andrew Jackson Henry Clay man! What will the man do next?

Let it be known that W. W. Holden and his followers have for months endeavored to create the impression, that his election was necessary to forward North Carolina in getting back into the Union; whereas, the truth is, that if a better Union man is elected, it is positively certain that the President and Congress will rejoice at the result.

Let it be remembered, that the President pardoned even General Humphreys, one of the rebel Generals, to enable him to qualify as Governor of Mississippi. The President is now embarrassed by attacks on him by the radicals of the North for appointing secession Governors, and it would no doubt be a relief to the President to hear of the election of Jonathan Worth.

No one doubts that our delegation to Congress will get their seats much more readily if Jonathan Worth, a life time Union man, be made our Governor, the Standard to the contrary notwithstanding.

AJAX.

People of North Carolina, if you want to get back into the Union, to enjoy the protection and privileges accorded loyal States, vote for W. W. Holden. His election will remove military rule, restore civil law, and give you that peace and prosperity which you enjoyed before the war, and of which the secession leaders robbed you.—Raleigh Progress.

People of North Carolina, if you want civil law, social order, and the prosperity of old vote for W. W. Holden. No earthly chance to get back into the Union if the disaffected opponents of the government succeed at the elections on the 9th of November.—Ibid.

The Issue.

W. W. Holden and GO BACK to the Union, or Jonathan Worth and STAY OUT of the Union.

Or in other words, Holden and live again under WASHINGTON'S government, or Jonathan Worth and perish.—Raleigh Standard.

Jonathan Worth's election will seal the doom of North Carolina for admission. Elect who you may, upon Gov. Holden's success depends the admission of North Carolina. The minds of many of the Northern people already biased against the sudden restoration of Southern States will stab our good old State with her own action. Who forced North Carolina into this position? The Sentinel and a party of office seeking politicians. Agitators and factionists, they would rule or ruin.—Ibid.

And has it come to this? Are the voters of North Carolina to be restricted in their choice of a ruler by threats such as these? Is there but one man in the State of North Carolina worthy to occupy the Gubernatorial chair, and has but one man the confidence of the Powers that be at Washington City to secure to the State all the rights, privileges and immunities which that one man can secure? If this is true, how low has the "Good Old North State" fallen. But one man, from the Atlantic to Cherokee, from Virginia to the South Carolina line, to whom North Carolina can afford to trust her destinies the coming year! Such threats as these in journals (especially the Standard) supposed to be in the entire confidence of the Provisional Governor, and to express his views, will do that distinguished gentleman immense injury, and to arouse all the latent spirit and independence of the freemen of North Carolina in opposition to him. If such are to be the character and spirit of the editorials of those presses favorable to the success of Gov. Holden, well may that gentleman exclaim "Good Lord deliver me from my friends."

If no one but Gov. Holden is to be permitted to hold the Executive office till the State is again in possession of all the rights, which she is assumed to have lost by the part she bore in the late revolution, then the coming election is a mere farce and the members of the Convention, if they know this, were guilty of a great wrong upon the people, by giving their countenance to its perpetration.

But it not true. Gov. Holden may be the personal friend of President Johnson; may possess that distinguished functionary's entire confidence; and we doubt not he does; but it argues little for the intelligence of the President to assume that he is so wedded to a man, as to prevent his doing justice to a people a majority of whom may not place such a high estimate upon his favorite as he does.

No man is better known in the State than Gov. Holden. For twenty-three years, he has been editor of the most prominent and influential paper published in the State. There is no man whose record is more extensively and correctly understood, and by that record which by indomitable energy, and perseverance and talent he has made for himself, the people at the coming election should judge him. If they approve it, let them elect him; but if they do not, let no craven fears prevent them from casting their ballots for the person of their choice.—Goldsboro' News.

The 33 Petitioners.

A gentleman informs us it was the purpose of Gov. Holden before the Convention, not to be a candidate for election to the office of Civil Governor, but that the persuasions of others induced him to do so. After considerable effort fifty-three gentlemen of the Convention, many of whom thought it might be best for the State, signed a petition urging him to run. From what we learn, some of the signers will find it difficult to explain the matter to the satisfaction of their constituents.

The latest joke of the season, is the attempt of the Standard to show that Jonathan Worth and Josiah Turner, Jr., were original secessionists. That paper seriously charges it upon them. It will soon attempt to prove that black is white, or white, black.

The day for the Tournament at Louisburg it will be seen, has been changed from the 7th to the 14th of November.

REMARKS OF

JUDGE HOWARD OF EDGECOMBE,

On the amendment of Mr. Caldwell of Burke, proposing to submit the question of "secession or no secession" to the people.

It is not my desire to prevent this ordinance from being submitted to the people, I hope that it will be; nor is there any reluctance on my part or the part of my constituents to comply with the wishes of the general government; we submit to its requirements without complaint. But the ungenerous action of several members of this Convention, representing constituencies so lately engaged in a common cause with my own, requires at my hands a word in behalf of the citizens of my county. For myself, when this ordinance was under discussion, I besought no leniency, but pursued the course which my judgment dictated and my conscience approved, and I hoped that when submitted to the people whom I represent, they would be allowed to vote "ratification" or "no ratification," as they might be willing to accept it or not, as a part of the terms of re admission to our rights as a State in the Union. Where it was open as a question of principle, with them it would only be presented as a proposition for reconciliation. But gentlemen seem unwilling to permit them thus to show their submission, and I cannot sit quietly by and witness unmoved, this attempt to place them in a false light or to insult them. They stand ready to ratify the ordinance, and to abide by it in good faith as a settlement now and ever of this question; but let it be understood that it is no pledge for the future, but a forswearing of the past, and they will vote no renunciation of their belief, no falsification of their principles.

Sir, I am proud of my constituency. They are true men. They stood nobly by their principles in the past, and it is the best guaranty of their faithfulness in the future. He that is false to me knowingly will ever be uncertain, when moved by ambition or interest. They are model republicans. Twenty-five years ago they were ridiculed as poor and illiterate. In the noblest and most republican of all pursuits, they brought themselves by their soundness of head and heart to the position of the banner county of the State, and with every characteristic of true conservative republicanism, through self-reliance, seeking neither position, nor place, nor power, with no airs of superiority, no cringing to power, cherishing always great veneration for law and order, an earnest devotion to the constitution of our fathers, and a faithful adherence to what they believed the true interests of their country. Amid the wreck of their prosperity, and the desolation of their homes, they stand ready to bury the past and to devote their energies to rebuilding the waste places and to developing the new civilization by which they are surrounded. Thus situated, it can but bestir my indignation when I see them, pardoned by their government and generously treated by such Union men (Union men always) as the delegate from Wake, Mr. Moore, and the delegate from Forsythe, Mr. Starbuck, proffered insult by the proscriptive and vindictive action of men, who if during the Confederacy they ever spoke or acted for the Union, it was never known, even to persons who like myself travelled over nearly every portion of the State. As in the past they respected the rights of all, as the delegate from Wake can well testify, so in the present they demand immunity from insult and wrong.

Splendid Tournament.

The citizens of Granville made a grand display on Thursday last at Henderson N. C.—Every body was there—splendid equipages,—elegantly dressed ladies, brave knights in grotesque costumes, old men, young men, lovers, sweethearts, all were there, as happy as a girl in her sunny teens. The address was delivered by Badger Harris Esq, a neat chaste knight like address. He talked grandiloquently of the "soft eyed angels," which was roundly, heartily applauded by men, women and children of all sorts and sizes, of all hues and complexions; for which he received a vote of thanks, drawn by our worthy chief judge, Capt. White.—And again the welkin rang with chivalrous words, so hearty, so full of feeling that liquid thoughts stole into our very eyes. The tilting was grand—sublime—spirited, and forcibly recalled the days of Knight-errantry. The ladies clapped their pretty white hands—waved their perfumed hankerchiefs; and gave other tokens of applause, with a zest that made our very eyes sparkle with elysian delight. When it was announced, that the Knight of Henderson was the successful competitor, the demonstration grew eloquent—brave to a fault and generous to the extreme—each soft eyed, black-eyed, blue-eyed, sunny faced fair one, sent from her radiant eyes, golden arrows from cupids quivers. The sport was continued with unabated pleasure until 4 o'clock, when it was announced, the three next successful Knights.

Just at this moment a most quixotic form riding on an ass' colt with a strange unearthly paraphernalia was seen slowly riding up the broad avenue, challenging the proud Knights to meet him on the field of fame. The loud laugh, the wild shout, spontaneously burst from the dense mass of human beings on either side, as he rode through the aisle to the Judges stand, championing the cause of beauty, none daring to accept the glove so quixotically tendered.

At 8 P. M., this vast sea of men, women and children found themselves in a brilliantly illuminated hall, at Capt. Swents, to witness the coronation. Who is to be Queen, who is to be crowned, went from lip to lip, and leaped from heart to heart like lightning flashes. Make way for the royal family!! cries the Marshall, and the beautiful Miss Thorpe under escort, amid breathless silence, followed by her maids of honor with their escorts, the successful Knights, accompanied by her chosen friend, J. Parker Jordan, stood in the midst of a polished appreciative circle.

The address being over, neat, touching, appropriate, joyful hearts responded to joyful hearts and music, revelry and song floated upon the midnight air so exquisitely sweet, so touchingly soft, that we find ourselves bewildered in the attempt to picture the dazzling, sparkling throng, that glittered in that brilliant alighted saloon, in the beautiful village of Henderson. First Congressional District.—Gov. Holden not their Choice.—The People are Union but they are still Southern.

Mr. Editor:—You may rely upon one thing, the people beyond the Chowan River mean to be true to themselves and the Old North State as well as to the Union. At the approaching election they will repudiate Gov. Holden as they did in 1864, and his "straitest sect."

He will not get 300 votes in the Counties of Currituck, Camden, Perquimans, Chowan and Gates. Every where I go, the people almost appronch unaminity in opposition to Gov. Holden. The people are going for our upright candidate Jonathan Worth, Esq. We dont know him personally, but we know Gov. Holden, and that's enough. When Beecher made a speech in Charleston in which he denounced the whole people of the South, as "mere trash," and that the negroes would be the true nobility of the Country, the Court Journal apologetically said, "Beecher was mistaken." Mistaken! Why did it not give him the lie direct, when he thus slandered the most chivalric people on earth! We shall not forget it.

The Governor it appears, is making capital out of a class of men who stuck to Vance for the "loaves and fishes," but deserted him when trouble came. They will deceive Holden as they did Vance. They flatter and fawn, but mark my prediction, if Worth is elected, as he will be, these very men will shout long and loud for WORTH. GATES.

We place at our mast-head the name of JONATHAN WORTH. We have faith in his integrity, for the reason that he has never been treacherous to any political pledges.

Mr. Worth is no demagogue, and it gives us pleasure to extend to him, as between himself and Mr. Holden, a hearty assurance of our determination to do the utmost in our power to present his claims to the people within the reach of this journal, as fully and vigorously as we can. We believe Mr. Worth's consistency, his wide extend reputation for ability, his known single-mindedness and love for the State, will make friends for him everywhere.—Fayetteville News.

[BY AUTHORITY.]

Ordinances and Resolutions passed by the North Carolina State Convention, First Session 1865.

AN ORDINANCE

Declaring what Laws and Ordinances are in force and for other purposes:

WHEREAS, Doubts may arise from the late attempt of the State of North Carolina to secede from the United States, whether any, and what laws have been and are now in force, and what acts done by officers and individuals are valid and obligatory. Now, for the purpose of preventing such doubts about these and other matters hereinafter mentioned: Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained as follows:

1. All the laws of the State, except as hereinafter is excepted, which on the twentieth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, were compatible with the allegiance of the citizens of the State to the government of the United States, and not since repealed or modified; and all the laws and ordinances passed since that day, except as hereinafter is excepted, compatible with such allegiance, and not since repealed or modified, and which are consistent with the Constitution of the State and the United States, are hereby declared to have been at all times since their enactment, and now to be in full force, in like manner, and to the same extent, and not otherwise as if the State had not on that day, nor at any time since attempted to secede from the government of the United States, and as if no question had been made of the lawful authority as the Convention assembled on that day, or of any General Assembly assembled since that day to enact such laws and ordinances, and all other of said ordinances and laws are hereby declared to have been and to be null and void: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the General Assembly from repealing or modifying any of said laws and ordinances hereby ratified, which shall not form a part of the Constitution of the State

2. All the judicial proceedings had or which may be had in the Courts of Record and before Justices of the Peace, shall be deemed and held valid in like manner and to the same extent and not otherwise as if the State had not on the said day, or since, attempted to secede from the United States.

3. All contracts, executory and executed, of every nature and kind, made on or since the twentieth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one; and all marriages solemnized on or since that day, under any authority purporting to be the law of the State, shall be deemed to be valid and binding between the parties in like manner and to the same extent, and not otherwise as if the State had not on the said day, or afterwards, attempted to secede from the United States; and it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to provide a scale of depreciation of the Confederate currency from the time of its first issue to the end of the war; and all executory contracts solvable in money, whether under seal or not, made after the depreciation of said currency before the first day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and yet unfilled, (except official bonds and penal bonds payable to the State) shall be deemed to have been made with the understanding that they were solvable in money of the value of the said currency; it shall be competent for either of the parties to show, by parol or other revelant testimony, what the understanding was in regard to the kind of currency in which the same are solvable; and in such case, the true understanding shall regulate the value of the contract; Provided, That in case the plaintiff in any suit upon such contracts will make an affidavit that it was solvable in other currency than that above referred to, then such presumption shall cease, and it shall be presumed to be payable in such currency as shall be mentioned in the affidavit, subject to explanation by evidence as aforesaid.

4. All the acts and doings of the civil officers of the State since the twentieth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, done or which may be done under, and in virtue of any authority purporting to be a law of the State which is consistent with its allegiance to the United States, and with the Constitution of the State, shall be deemed valid, and of the same force and effect as if the State had not on that day or since attempted to secede from the United States.

5. No person who may have been in the civil or military service of the State or of the Confederate States, shall be held liable for any act done, or which may be done in the proper discharge of the duties imposed on him by any authority purporting to be a law of the State or Confederate States Government; but such person shall be exempt from all personal liability therefore, in like manner as if such act had been done under lawful authority; Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to bar any citizen of the State from the civil action for the recovery of damages or from indictment on account of any improper or illegal execution of the law or authority imposing such duties: Provided, That no order issued without authority of what purported to be a law of the State or Confederate States shall be any protection to illegal acts done thereunder.

6. All the acts and deeds of the Provisional Governor of the State appointed by the President of the United States, and likewise all the acts of any officer or agent by him appointed or under his authority, done or which may be done in pursuance of the authority conferred on such officer, or agent are hereby ratified and declared to be valid to all intents and purposes; Provided nevertheless, That so far as it may be competent for this Convention to declare the same, all appointments made, and all officers and places created by or under the authority of the Provisional Governor shall cease at the close of the first session of the next General Assembly, or at such other time as that Assembly shall direct successors in such appointments or officers to be chosen or to be qualified, subject, however, to the provisions of the Revised Code, chapter seventy-seven, section three; Provided, however, That in all cases of appointments made by him of directors in any corporation they shall continue until the regular elections of its officers.

7. All provisions for a change in those rates of taxation that were in force upon the twentieth of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and all laws rendering criminal the distillation of grain and other articles are hereby repealed; and until otherwise provided by the General Assembly, sheriffs and other revenue officers shall collect and account for the taxes and other puplic dues according to the rates that were in force upon the twentieth day of May aforesaid.

[Ratified in Convention, this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

EDWIN G. READE, President.
JAMES H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

AN ORDINANCE

To give jurisdiction to the Provisional Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions:

Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the Provisional Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions shall have all the criminal jurisdiction that is now allowed to Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions in chapter thirty-one of the Revised Code, and that appeals be from the judgments of such courts to the next regular term of the Superior Courts of law that shall be held for the County in which the case shall be pending.

Be it further ordained, That the Provisional Justices of the Peace shall have and exercise all the criminal powers and jurisdiction that are now allowed to Justices of the Peace by the Revised Code.

North Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent. was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three installments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October, 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand,	$320,000
" " Allowed Losses,	10,000
" " Unsettled do.	7,500

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which, of course, cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c., &c., do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be, necessarily some delay in the payment of the losses. It is hoped, however, that there will be no complaint on this account; especially, when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused.

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms. Address all letters to the Secretary. T. H. SBLBY, Pres't.

HAMDEN S. SMITH, Secretary.

PLANTATION FOR RENT.

THE SUBSCRIBER, HAVING ENGAGED IN another business, wishes to rent out his plantation for the ensuing year. He does not want more than eight, nor less than six hands worked upon it. For this number of hands, the opportunity for making a crop is unusually fine. The chance for

TOBACCO AND OATS,

superior. There are seventy thousand tobacco hills which may be put in, that will make good tobacco without manure, and there is plenty of the very best tobacco land that may be cleared. The location is in a very fine neighborhood, three miles from Macon Depot on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road, and is one of the most healthy and delightful in the County. The residence contains six rooms, and there are all the necessary outhouses and a good orchard. He will sell everything necessary to carry on the farm—stock, crop, team, plantation implements, &c, &c. Address, or call upon
